CTPSR Peacebuilding Scholarship
Opportunity from the Centre for Trust, Peace and Social Relations at Coventry University
To be eligible to apply for this scholarship you will need to fulfil the following criteria:

- You must be from a country which is a low income (or low & middle income) country* and has experienced violent conflict.
- Have no academic qualifications in peace studies, international relations or equivalent.
- Have changed your occupation from one that is not related to peacebuilding to a role that is following conflict in your country.
- Have been working for a national or regional civil society organisation in a role focused on peacebuilding for more than three years.
- Be employed by an organisation who cannot provide financial resources for staff development but will allow individuals the necessary time to study on a part-time Master’s qualification (to be evidenced in a supporting letter from your employer).

You must also meet the entry requirements for the course as outlined at www.coventry.ac.uk/pacs-MA.

Assessment will be made by review of application documents and, where appropriate, an interview.

Final date for the applications is Tuesday 31 July.

Other funding opportunities are available through the Centre's association with the Ferguson Trust. Please check our website at www.coventry.ac.uk/CTPSR for further details.

* data.worldbank.org/income-level/low-income
* data.worldbank.org/income-level/low-and-middle-income